

Fundraising Ideas!

- Host a dinner or a cocktail party at your home. Charge an admission fee which covers expenses and a profit to be applied as a donation to your team.
- Start a change jar; leave it on your desk at work. Watch how you're fundraising grows.
- Ask your church or school to host a dinner. Charge admission and apply the proceeds to your team. You may also get folks to join your team!
- Host an auction. Ask everyone you know if they have goods or services they would like to donate. Massages, vacation homes, cooking lessons, tutoring sessions, guitar lessons, baby sitting services, art work, sports memorabilia, concert & play tickets etc. Watch the offers grow, in turn so will your fundraising!
- Change your outgoing voicemail message to indicate that you have accepted the challenge of raising funds for the Hemophilia Walk. Provide the website www.hemophilia.org/walk so that folks can make on line donations.
- Adjust the signature on your e-mail to indicate that you are participating in the Hemophilia Walk. Direct folks to your personal page.
- Allow staff/students/employees to purchase dress down days for $5.00 per person/ per day.
- Host an Ice cream social and charge admission. Ask your local grocer to donate the ingredients.
- Offer your services as a babysitter; donate the proceeds to your walk team.
- Hold a chili cook off. Folks can compete against each other for the title of "Chili Master". Those that are not in the competition can vote to help determine the winner.
- Have a hat day at school. Offer students the opportunity to pay $2.00 to wear their favorite hat for the day. Offer this opportunity a few times during the campaign, it can really add up!
- Have a garage sale. Ask friends and family to donate items. Sell the items you can & donate the remaining items. Your trash just might be my treasure!
- Host a casino night. Charge an admission fee and split the proceeds. Half of the winnings can be donated to the Hemophilia Walk team hosting the event.
- Check to see if your employer has a matching gifts program. You can double your contribution!
- Create a thermometer to highlight your teams fundraising progress. Display the thermometer in your lobby or break room so that all can watch your team's progress.
